2 X SUITES (RHODES AND LIVINGSTONE) AT RIVER CLUB

In: 30 May 2015 | Out: 1 June 2015

2 nights

The River Club, with its Edwardian-style house and manicured lawns on the banks of the swift-flowing Zambezi River offers colonial respite in the heart of Africa.

The main area is a well-appointed verandah-clad residence, with a comfortable lounge, large dining room and impressive library. Lush gardens (where midday meals are often served) spread out beneath the trees and a swimming pool with its deck and hammocks provides a refreshing siesta spot. With 10 luxury chalets spread out amongst the riverine vegetation, comprising luxurious bedrooms and en-suite bathrooms, provide quiet sanctuaries overlooking the river with uninterrupted views.

Activities include sundowner cruises, visits to the Victoria Falls, Simonga Village, local markets and Livingstone town which is rich in history and certainly worth exploring. The River Club makes for an ideal Livingstone sojourn away from the hussle & bussle of the town.

Day 3 - 5

1 - 4 June 2015

SUPERIOR SAFARI TENT AT CHIAWA CAMP

In: 1 June 2015 | Out: 4 June 2015

3 nights

Rates include: All meals, scheduled lodge activities, drinks (except premium imported wines, champagnes, spirits and liqueurs), laundry, park entry fees, transfers between Old Mondoro / Chiawa Camps & Jeki / Royal Airstrip.

The award-winning Chiawa Camp in the Lower Zambezi National Park is owned and run by the Cumings family, and their personal touch is evident as soon as you step off the boat upon arrival. Perhaps the most outstanding feature here is the absolute flexibility and eagerness to accommodate each guest's preferences, particularly when it comes to activities.

Accommodation is a choice of superbly constructed tented units with en-suite facilities and an ever-present sensitive carbon footprint. The lodging blends effortlessly into the natural surrounds and provides sumptuous retreats. Like everything else at this slick camp, food and drink is taken seriously. Meals are events at Chiawa: dinners are heralded by the wonderful kitchen choir; indulgent menus, and different venues. Lively conversation and fireside night-caps flow naturally. Chiawa is renowned for its excellent guides and the plethora of wildlife activities to choose from. As well as the legendary nature walks and 4x4 safaris, you might choose a canoe safari, sunset cruise, night drive, tiger-fishing or fly-fishing, or even star-gazing. The wildlife viewing is superb here with lions, leopards, elephants, hippos, prolific bird life and many more animals in plenty.

Day 6 & 7

4 - 6 June 2015

2 X VILLAS AT NORMAN CARR SAFARIS - CHINZOMBO

In: 4 June 2015 | Out: 6 June 2015

2 nights

Rates include: All meals, transfers to and from Mfuwe airport, inter-camp transfers, safari activities, standard bar drinks and house wines and laundry.

Opened in early June 2013, Chinzombo is a brand-new camp on an old site that spans an expansive curve of the Luangwa River overlooking South Luangwa National Park. Designed by two of the safari industry's leading designer/architects, this camp is a 'first' for Zambia in terms of its sheer opulence and very clean, contemporary style. The best news is that this shiny new camp comes from Norman Carr Safaris, which is probably Zambia's oldest photographic safari company – with a track record of running first-class safari camps.

However you look at it, Chinzombo is not a typical Zambian camp. It's a step more luxurious and more contemporary than any of the other camps in South Luangwa, and at least a little more costly, too. However, its food and guides and very good indeed – at the top end of Zambia's normally high standards – so if luxury is your priority, then it's perhaps worth the extra cost.
